A BIT ABOUT US

SERVE Noblesville's Serve Week uses community projects to create connections that wouldn't happen otherwise. Neighbors come together with a shared goal of making a difference. While the projects help improve the livability of Noblesville -- making it more healthy, active and beautiful -- the real power of SERVE Week lies in its ability to connect the people who create that stronger community.

Our Roots

SERVE Week has been increasing its impact since its early days as part of Faith, Hope, Love. In 2008, the Noblesville initiative had 57 volunteers and 11 partners/groups who worked on a total of 12 projects in the community. In 2019, it had nearly 800 volunteers and over 60 partners and groups who completed over 80 projects during the four-day blitz.

The growth coincides with a shift from neighborhood-focused projects to community-wide initiatives. Anyone can submit project ideas to SERVE Noblesville, and if volunteers can get it done, they will. Nothing is off-limits.

Since its formation in 2012, SERVE Noblesville has engaged over 5,000 volunteers to help with nearly 500 community projects.
